

Social News

MRS. A. R. DUFFEY
EDITOR

TELEPHONES
SEVEN AND 620

Returns From Pinehurst

Dr. S. B. Moore has returned from Pinehurst, North Carolina where he has been spending some time.

Returns From Baltimore

Mr. Gilbert Cox has returned from Baltimore where he was the guest of relatives.

Recuperating in Florida

Mrs. J. B. Fitzgerald, accompanied by her niece, Miss Margaret O'Brien, left last night for Miami Florida, to recuperate from a recent serious illness.

Guest From Roseville

Miss M. Louise Mills, of Roseville, Stafford County, was the week-end guest of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Blue, at her home near Alexandria.

Leaves For South America

Mr. William Manger, of this city, left yesterday for New York from which he will sail today for Valparaiso, Chile, to attend the Fifth International Conference of American States, to assemble at Santiago on March 25. He will accompany Dr. L. S. Rowe, Director General of the Pan American Union, and a Delegate of the United States to the Conference.

At the close of the Conference Mr. Manger will visit Argentina, Uruguay and Brazil before returning home.

Visited Baltimore

Miss Meade Field was the week end guest of friends in Baltimore, Maryland.

Pretty Wedding Yesterday

The marriage of Miss Gertrude O'Brien, daughter of Mrs. A. B. O'Brien and Mr. Jean J. Mangano, both of Washington, took place at the residence of Rev. E. V. Regester, on South Washington street.

The bride who was attended by her sister, Miss Alice O'Brien, was attractively gowned in tulle de negre tulle, with hat and furs to match. The maid of honor wore midnight blue tulle with blue hat.

The best man was Mr. G. H. Mangano, brother of the groom. In the wedding party were the bride's mother, Mrs. A. B. O'Brien, Miss Evelyn O'Brien, Mrs. John Granbury Henshaw, Mrs. Howard, of George Washington Park and Mr. Albert Dixon, of Washington.

Mr. Ball Here

Hon. Frank L. Ball, candidate for the State Senate from Arlington County, was the guest of friends here yesterday.

Visitors in Fredericksburg

Miss Mabel Smith, Miss Esther Lambert, Miss Eliza Cox, and Miss Frances Cox, have returned from Fredericksburg, where they spent the week-end with friends at the State Normal School.

Returns From Richmond

Miss Emily Thornhill has returned from a stay of several days in Richmond.

Leaving For Florida

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Kirk are leaving tonight for Lakeland, Florida, where they will spend some time.

Return From Buffalo

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Frank formerly of Buffalo, New York, are occupying their new home in Braddock. Mrs. Frank was formerly Miss Dorothy Sullivan.

Returns From Richmond

Little Miss Elizabeth Allen has returned to her home in Alexandria from Richmond, where she was a patient at the Orthopedic Hospital.

Visiting in Florida

Miss Katherine Stewart is visiting friends in Florida.

FAIRFAX NEWS

Mr. E. A. Boyce, of near Burke, is quite ill.

Mr. James Gheen, of Pender, has been confined to his home for some time through illness.

Mrs. Carrie Dyer, of Sideburn, is going to move shortly to near Washington, where it will be more convenient to her daughter's work.

Mrs. Booker Jones is very much better and is sitting up.

Mrs. C. N. Stewart was a Washington visitor recently.

The funeral of Mr. Peter Harmon was held Thursday evening and was largely attended. He will be very much missed in the neighborhood.

The Vienna Fire Department proved its worth when it extinguished the fire which would otherwise have proved dangerous in the residence of Mr. William Hite. The fire caught between the walls and at first it was unable to locate its position.

Mrs. Ira L. Hutchinson has purchased the Bryce place at Pender, and will move in shortly.

This home owned by Mr. Geo. F. Harrison, of Herndon Heights, was destroyed by fire last week.

The officers elected at the last meeting of the Hatmart Citizens' Association were as follows: J. W. Pobst, president; Mrs. F. C. Gibson, vice president; W. H. Sinkabin, secretary; S. M. Thompson, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Hunt will have an oyster supper in their home for the benefit of the Vale Church, March sixth.

Miss Elizabeth Huddelson, of Fairfax, has as her guest, Mrs. M. Young.

Mr. Ray Huffard, of near Pender, who was operated on recently in a Washington hospital, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hutchinson had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Downs.

Dr. E. L. Robey, of Herndon, was a Fairfax guest recently.

The people of Fairfax extend their sympathy to Mr. Michael Bellue in his bereavement. He lost his mother last week. She was 90 years old.

Mrs. Ada M. Ford entertained at cards Wednesday evening.

Mr. Solomon Beach, of lower Fairfax, is very ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Frasier, of Pleasant Valley, were injured in an automobile wreck last week.

An American Modern Woodman's Association was organized in Vienna recently and expects to do good work.

Mr. W. T. Oliver, state senator, is attending the special meeting of the Virginia Legislature.

The McClean Fire Department met Wednesday of last week and arrangements were made to buy a fire truck.

The Young People's Bible Class of Falls Church Baptist Church, met Saturday night and reorganized with the following officers: Mr. Munson Lane, president; Mr. Howard Berger, vice president; and Mr. Higgins, secretary and treasurer.

There will be an entertainment in the Woodburn Hall next Saturday night at 8:30, for the benefit of the Woodburn Grove's Good Roads Association.

Mrs. A. H. Thompson, of Hatmart, has as her guest, Mrs. J. T. Fletcher, of Centerville.

Mr. William E. Detweiler, of Philadelphia, was a Clifton Forge guest recently.

Mr. Ford Merchant was the guest of his friends in Clifton last week-end.

Rev. T. H. McCloud who has been taking an extended vacation will resume services in the Clifton Presbyterian Church Sunday morning at 11:30.

Master John Caton Hatmart, who has been severely ill with pneumonia, is much better, and will soon be able to be out again.

The Citizens' Association of Woodbridge, met Friday evening.

The Consolidation of this club with that of the Mother's Club was discussed.

On Sunday evening about two-thirty a barn and house belonging to Mr. Schuster near Fairfax, burned to the ground, despite the heroic efforts of the nearest neighbors, Mr. Guy Pettit and Raymond Washburn, who used every means in their power to control the flames without success.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Kirby received a few of their friends, at cards, at the home of her mother last Saturday evening. Among those present were: Misses Dollie and Henrietta Burke, Hazel Davis, and Messrs. Reginald Gaines, James Mitchell, Robert Merchant and Charles Dyer.

Mrs. W. H. F. Lee, of Ravenswood, accompanied by Miss Kate Stewart, of Alexandria, are wintering in Florida.

Dr. Bowling Lee who is in New York for the winter, is preparing to have the Lee Mansion at Ravensworth remodeled and several wings added, to be ready for his occupancy by summer.

There has been a commodious garage just completed, and repair on the outbuildings on the estate.

Mrs. R. S. Gaines.

Holy Name Will Play Double Header Tonight

Tonight in the Lyceum Hall the Holy Name quint will engage the fast Rosedale Boys club of Washington. This game should be a nip and tuck affair as both teams are full of "pep" and ready for action. In the preliminary game the St. Mary's Jrs., will play the St. Andrews Jrs., of Washington.

This game will be one of the best games ever staged between two junior teams. The games will start at eight o'clock sharp.

Mrs. R. S. Gaines.

Orioles Want Game With Holy Name Team

The Virginia Orioles would like to arrange a game with the Holy Name Society with the agreement that we play only one game and winner taking all the gate receipt. The H. N. S. may also have the pleasure of picking their own referee. Please arrange soon if you wish to take a fair chance with some fair sports and poor sports. If you or good sports give us a game as soon as you can. Remember the winner taking all the receipts, and also we do not have to talk to the referee to win our games.

L. Lyons.

Herrick Joins Anti-Flirt Club

Attorney General Daugherty, the other invalid of the party, was confined to his bed on the special and the President took personal care of him.

Mr. Harding answered in person cheers of a crowd at Emporia, Va. It was raining—a gloomy drizzle—but more the 200 persons at the train to greet the President.

"How's Mrs. Harding, Mr. President," a little girl asked the President.

"She is doing nicely, thank you," Mr. Harding, with a happy smile replied. "She is very happy to be able to take this trip. It's the first time she has been outside the White House in six months."

The President shook hands with a score of boys and girls.

TALK ON NEAR EAST

An interesting illustrated lecture on conditions in the Near East was delivered by Dr. Andrew M. Brodie in the auditorium of the chamber of commerce last night under the auspices of the local committee in charge of the Near East Relief.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jolett and son of Mt. Ranier, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ray and Messrs. Spencer and Kennon Davis were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Byington on Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Allen, Miss Irene Tyers, Mr. John Tyers and Mr. David Flatford were visiting friends in Washington on Saturday.

Dr. C. L. Starkweather who has been ill with the flu for several weeks is greatly improved.

The Ladies Auxiliary and Aid met on Saturday with Mrs. Fred Hyson in Occoquan. The attendance was smaller than usual but it is hoped that as spring advances the ladies will take greater interest and have as good meetings as in the past.

Mr. William Limerick, of Lewis Chapel, died on Friday morning after a short illness of pneumonia. Funeral services and interment took place Sunday afternoon from Cranford Memorial church.

Miss Mary Boothe, from the Northern Neck of Virginia, who is teaching at Oakton, was the house guest of Mrs. Marshall E. Davis over the week end.

Mrs. Kenneth Dove and little daughters, Nancy and Lorraine, were visiting friends in Accotink Thursday.

Mrs. Solomon Beach, aged 74 years, died on Friday evening after a short illness of grippe and pneumonia. Interment took place on Monday afternoon at Bacon Race, Prince William county. Elder Smoot of the Old School Baptist church conducted funeral service. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frank Reed and Mrs. William F. Halley.

Mrs. McCollum, mother of Mr. T. J. McCollum, has been sick for the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Barnard, Mrs. C. O. Thurman and little daughter, Mary Edith and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Green were the guests of Mr. Green's parents at Falls Church Sunday week.

TO PROVE that a man's not out when he's down, F. R. Bigler of Kansas City has obtained lucrative employment for more than 1100 cripples. Bigler himself lost an arm and a leg in a railroad accident 35 years ago. Now he's purchasing agent for the Kansas City gas company.

address' and the poor misguided girl gave her name and address."

"When I read of your noble work of putting down the masher I could not resist coming out here to talk to you and advise you to put a little pepper into your organization and to expect to have to fight a powerful foe. Your ideal is a high and noble one, and if it can survive will be most helpful and should be aided, abetted and commended."

Herrick called attention to the trials and tribulations visited on him in his fight to protect the beauties of the capitol and warned the girls to be on guard against those who would try to "put it over" on them.

"They did it on me after the introduction of my bill in congress and my protests and campaign against beauty contests. He said, 'tactics were used worthy of 3,000 years ago. There are some honorable gentlemen in congress, but with some gentlemen you need a question mark as tall as Pike's Peak.'

"I am a man who has never stepped from the straight and narrow path. I may be a nut, but I am hard to crack."

Harding Is After Golf

Wants to Ge a Round of The Old Links Today

(By United Press.)

Aboard President Harding's Train, en route to Jacksonville, Florida, March 6.—Having laid aside the cares and worries of office for the first time in two years, and with Mrs. Harding's restored health to make him still happier, President Harding lost no time today in making up his mind about the first thing he wants to do on his vacation.

Golf—with Senator Frelinghuysen and Hale—before the house boat Pioneer starts on the holiday cruise was what the president voted for. The party was due to arrive at Ormond around noon, where Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. McLean, the Hardings' hosts, were waiting. The President hoped to get in a round of his favorite game this afternoon.

Mrs. Harding, although much recovered decided not to venture out in response to cheers of crowds at stations along the line. She is standing the journey well. Both she and Mr. Harding expect that the trip on the Pioneer will have a most beneficial effect in helping the "first lady of the land" to regain her health, after her six months confinement to the White House.

Attorney General Daugherty, the other invalid of the party, was confined to his bed on the special and the President took personal care of him.

Mr. Harding answered in person cheers of a crowd at Emporia, Va. It was raining—a gloomy drizzle—but more the 200 persons at the train to greet the President.

"How's Mrs. Harding, Mr. President," a little girl asked the President.

"She is doing nicely, thank you," Mr. Harding, with a happy smile replied. "She is very happy to be able to take this trip. It's the first time she has been outside the White House in six months."

The President shook hands with a score of boys and girls.

TALK ON NEAR EAST

An interesting illustrated lecture on conditions in the Near East was delivered by Dr. Andrew M. Brodie in the auditorium of the chamber of commerce last night under the auspices of the local committee in charge of the Near East Relief.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jolett and son of Mt. Ranier, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ray and Messrs. Spencer and Kennon Davis were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Byington on Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Allen, Miss Irene Tyers, Mr. John Tyers and Mr. David Flatford were visiting friends in Washington on Saturday.

Dr. C. L. Starkweather who has been ill with the flu for several weeks is greatly improved.

The Ladies Auxiliary and Aid met on Saturday with Mrs. Fred Hyson in Occoquan. The attendance was smaller than usual but it is hoped that as spring advances the ladies will take greater interest and have as good meetings as in the past.

Mr. William Limerick, of Lewis Chapel, died on Friday morning after a short illness of pneumonia. Funeral services and interment took place Sunday afternoon from Cranford Memorial church.

Miss Mary Boothe, from the Northern Neck of Virginia, who is teaching at Oakton, was the house guest of Mrs. Marshall E. Davis over the week end.

Mrs. Kenneth Dove and little daughters, Nancy and Lorraine, were visiting friends in Accotink Thursday.

Mrs. Solomon Beach, aged 74 years, died on Friday evening after a short illness of grippe and pneumonia. Interment took place on Monday afternoon at Bacon Race, Prince William county. Elder Smoot of the Old School Baptist church conducted funeral service. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frank Reed and Mrs. William F. Halley.

Mrs. McCollum, mother of Mr. T. J. McCollum, has been sick for the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Barnard, Mrs. C. O. Thurman and little daughter, Mary Edith and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Green were the guests of Mr. Green's parents at Falls Church Sunday week.

Mrs. J. B. Allen, Miss Irene Tyers, Mr. John Tyers and Mr. David Flatford were visiting friends in Washington on Saturday.

Dr. C. L. Starkweather who has been ill with the flu for several weeks is greatly improved.

Every Time you order sugar make sure it is clean, of highest quality and correct in weight—demand Domino Package Sugars

"Sweeten it with Domino"

Granulated, Tablet, Powdered.

Confectioners, Brown, Golden Syrup, Cinnamon and Sugar, Sugar-Honey, Molasses

LORTON NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jolett and son of Mt. Ranier, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ray and Messrs. Spencer and Kennon Davis were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Byington on Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Allen, Miss Irene Tyers, Mr. John Tyers and Mr. David Flatford were visiting friends in Washington on Saturday.

Dr. C. L. Starkweather who has been ill with the flu for several weeks is greatly improved.

The Ladies Auxiliary and Aid met on Saturday with Mrs. Fred Hyson in Occoquan. The attendance was smaller than usual but it is hoped that as spring advances the ladies will take greater interest and have as good meetings as in the past.

Mr. William Limerick, of Lewis Chapel, died on Friday morning after a short illness of pneumonia. Funeral services and interment took place Sunday afternoon from Cranford Memorial church.

Miss Mary Boothe, from the Northern Neck of Virginia, who is teaching at Oakton, was the house guest of Mrs. Marshall E. Davis over the week end.

Mrs. Kenneth Dove and little daughters, Nancy and Lorraine, were visiting friends in Accotink Thursday.

Mrs. Solomon Beach, aged 74 years, died on Friday evening after a short illness of grippe and pneumonia. Interment took place on Monday afternoon at Bacon Race, Prince William county. Elder Smoot of the Old School Baptist church conducted funeral service. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frank Reed and Mrs. William F. Halley.

Mrs. McCollum, mother of Mr. T. J. McCollum, has been sick for the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Barnard, Mrs. C. O. Thurman and little daughter, Mary Edith and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Green were the guests of Mr. Green's parents at Falls Church Sunday week.

Mrs. J. B. Allen, Miss Irene Tyers, Mr. John Tyers and Mr. David Flatford were visiting friends in Washington on Saturday.

Dr. C. L. Starkweather who has been ill with the flu for several weeks is greatly improved.

The Ladies Auxiliary and Aid met on Saturday with Mrs. Fred Hyson in Occoquan. The attendance was smaller than usual but it is hoped that as spring advances the ladies will take greater interest and have as good meetings as in the past.

Mr. William Limerick, of Lewis Chapel, died on Friday morning after a short illness of pneumonia. Funeral services and interment took place Sunday afternoon from Cranford Memorial church.

Miss Mary Boothe, from the Northern Neck of Virginia, who is teaching at Oakton, was the house guest of Mrs. Marshall E. Davis over the week end.

Mrs. Kenneth Dove and little daughters, Nancy and Lorraine, were visiting friends in Accotink Thursday.

Mrs. Solomon Beach, aged 74 years, died on Friday evening after a short illness of grippe and pneumonia. Interment took place on Monday afternoon at Bacon Race, Prince William county. Elder Smoot of the Old School Baptist church conducted funeral service. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frank Reed and Mrs. William F. Halley.

Mrs. McCollum, mother of Mr. T. J. McCollum, has been sick for the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Barnard, Mrs. C. O. Thurman and little daughter, Mary Edith and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Green were the guests of Mr. Green's parents at Falls Church Sunday week.

Mrs. J. B. Allen, Miss Irene Tyers, Mr. John Tyers and Mr. David Flatford were visiting friends in Washington on Saturday.

Dr. C. L. Starkweather who has been ill with the flu for several weeks is greatly improved.

The Ladies Auxiliary and Aid met on Saturday with Mrs. Fred Hyson in Occoquan. The attendance was smaller than usual but it is hoped that as spring advances the ladies will take greater interest and have as good meetings as in the past.

Mr. William Limerick, of Lewis Chapel, died on Friday morning after a short illness of pneumonia. Funeral services and interment took place Sunday afternoon from Cranford Memorial church.

Miss Mary Boothe, from the Northern Neck of Virginia, who is teaching at Oakton, was the house guest of Mrs. Marshall E. Davis over the week end.

Mrs. Kenneth Dove and little daughters, Nancy and Lorraine, were visiting friends in Accotink Thursday.

Mrs. Solomon Beach, aged 74 years, died on Friday evening after a short illness of grippe and pneumonia. Interment took place on Monday afternoon at Bacon Race, Prince William county. Elder Smoot of the Old School Baptist church conducted funeral service. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frank Reed and Mrs. William F. Halley.

Mrs. McCollum, mother of Mr. T. J. McCollum, has been sick for the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Barnard, Mrs. C. O. Thurman and little daughter, Mary Edith and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Green were the guests of Mr. Green's parents at Falls Church Sunday week.

Mrs. J. B. Allen, Miss Irene Tyers, Mr. John Tyers and Mr. David Flatford were visiting friends in Washington on Saturday.

Dr. C. L. Starkweather who has been ill with the flu for several weeks is greatly improved.

afternoon and Sunday.

Mr. V. O. Beach is convalescent from his recent attack of pneumonia but is not able to return to work.

Mrs. Lulu Donahue and friends from Washington were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Anderson and visited Pohick church on Sunday afternoon.

O. J. Neiderhofer has resigned his position at the D. C. Reformatory and left Saturday to join his family at Waynesboro, Pa.

There was public speaking at Woodlawn Community building on Friday evening. Ex-Senator M. E. Clapp being the speaker of the evening. Sandwiches, cake and coffee were for sale. A silver offering was also taken. Proceeds to be used towards the debt on the building.

Miss Edna Leary was home for the week end from Manassas, where she is attending school.

Mr. H. W. Hawkins was in Washington on Saturday.

Mr. James O'Neil has accepted a position as night officer at the D. C. Reformatory.

Mrs. James Baggett was guest of Mrs. Kenneth Dove on Wednesday.

Committees Named For Meet March 16

In connection with the arrangements for the quarterly meeting of the chamber of commerce to be held the evening of March 16 in the rooms of that organization a meeting will be held this afternoon to hear reports in the progress made.

F. Clinton Knight, chairman, announces the appointment of the following as cheerleaders to bring guests to the meeting: C. C. Batteller, W. Clifton Cunningham, Hugh T. Clarkson, Llewellyn Dyson, Robert F. Downham, Irvin Diener, Claude W. Fletcher, J. Dulaney Hammond, William G. Ilich, F. S. Jackson, R. E. Knight, J. William May, J. F. Myers, Robert L. Middleton, R. Z. Myers, Jr., K. W. Ogden, E. A. Olsen, E. Gorman Ridgely, W. L. Rammel, B. A. Seiple, A. M. Remschell, B. Swan, W. H. Thomas, B. Weil, J. Kent White, C. Page Waller, Harry W. Wade and H. H. Watkins.

$10,000 ROAD BOND ISSUE

Onancock, Va., March 4.—At a special election held recently in the Mayor's office it was decided by a vote of 122 to 2 that the town should issue bonds for $10,000 for the purpose of improving the streets of Onancock. It has been decided that it would not be necessary at present to offer the bonds for sale, as it is probable the income from the town's resources will be ample to carry the indebtedness.

Ventilating fans run by kerosene lamps, are being marketed.

SALE

On the 10th day of March, 1923, at twelve o'clock noon, at No. 116 North St. Asaph Street, I will sell at public auction for cash the following articles to satisfy execution upon various judgments obtained against Travers and Sutton:

Battery charging outfit, consisting of 2 rectifiers, one set burning tips, acid carboy, stone crocks, battery jars, etc., 15 batteries, miscellaneous lot battery parts, 20 Brunswick auto tires, new, of various sizes, entire stock automobile accessories, new, Flash lights, polishers, greases, wireless outfits, typewriter desk and chair, new, show cases, safe, and other